Footnotes:
(1) Psa 56:3 What time I am afraid, I will put my trust in thee. This is the first verse that I memorized.
(2) Song 8:14 Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe or to a young hart upon the mountains of spices. [Roe: the sense of prominence; splendor (as conspicuous); also a gazelle (as beautiful):--beautiful, glorious]. (John 17:22 I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one.) Song 6:4 Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah [delightsomeness;], comely as Jerusalem [founded peaceful;], terrible as an army with banners. Song 6:7 As a piece of a pomegranate [the tree] are thy temples [the side of the head] within thy locks [veil].
Song 6:7 Your temples behind your veil are like the halves of a pomegranate.
